I General Disclaimer

This Candidate Bulletin provides an overview of Virginia electoral requirements. This document does not purport to provide legal advice or binding statements of official policy. Rather, the Candidate Bulletins describe election laws found in the Code of Virginia. Applicable laws and regulations are subject to change in content and interpretation. Local charters may set different requirements. Candidates are responsible for verifying the status of, and complying with, current laws and regulations.

2 Qualifications to be a Candidate

A candidate must meet each of the following requirements:

1. Qualified to vote for and hold the office sought
2. A resident¹ of the Commonwealth for one year immediately preceding the election
3. A resident, by the time of filing, of the city or town in which he offers for election

3 Forms

A candidate must file certain documents in order to qualify to appear on the ballot.² Each form is described below.

3.1 Certificate of Candidate Qualification (SBE-501)

Each candidate to appear on a ballot must file this form to certify under oath to the Department of Elections that (s)he meets the qualifications set out in the Code of Virginia.³ A candidate for local offices files this form with their general registrar.

3.2 Declaration of Candidacy (SBE-505/520)

This form must be filed with the Petition of Qualified Voters.⁴ It is a required filing for independent (non-party) candidates and primary election candidates.

3.3 Petition of Qualified Voters (SBE505/612)

This form is prepared and distributed by the Department of Elections in two sizes: legal and letter.⁵ Petitions must be filed together with the Declaration of Candidacy. Note: Candidates for special elections may not circulate petitions until after the issuance of the writ or order calling the election.

¹ For guidance in determining residency see § 24.2-101, definition of “residence,” and administrative regulations 1 VAC 20-40-20 and 1 VAC 20-40-30.

³ Va. Code § 24.2-501.

⁴ Va. Code § 24.2-505.

⁵ Letter and legal.

- A candidate for membership on the governing body or elected school board of any county or city must collect at least 125 signatures; or if from an election district not at large containing 1,000 or fewer registered voters, 50 signatures.
- A candidate for membership on the governing body or elected school board of any town which has more than 1,500 registered voters must collect at least 125 signatures; or if from a ward or other district not at large, 25 signatures
- A candidate for membership on the governing body or elected school board of any town with 1,500 or less registered voters, no petition shall be required.

Local charters may specify different requirements. Please review the State Board's regulation regarding material omissions from petitions of qualified voters before circulating the Petition of Qualified Voters form.⁶

Independent (non-party) candidates may, at the time of filing, request notification of any problems with her filing that can be corrected before the filing deadline.⁷ This request must be made in writing and addressed to the secretary of the electoral board. The written request does not guarantee timely response. Certain factors, such as the number and timing of filings, may affect the electoral board's ability to comply with the request.

A nonparty candidate has the right to appeal a determination by the electoral board that the candidate's petitions do not contain the minimum number of signatures of qualified voters for the office sought.⁸ Candidates have 5 days from the issuance of notice of their disqualification to file their appeal with the determining body.

Appeals are conducted by the determining body in accordance with regulations set forth by the State Board of Elections.⁹ Consideration on appeal is "limited to whether or not the signatures on the petitions that were filed were reasonably rejected according to the requirements of [Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia and regulations for petitions set forth by the State Board of Elections]. "The candidate bears the burden of proof in establishing that a sufficient number of signatures from qualified voters were timely provided." All appeals are final and not subject to further appeal.

3.4 Statement of Economic Interests

A candidate for city council is required to file a Statement of Economic Interests with their local general registrar. The form can be obtained from the general registrar or is available here: <http://ethics.dls.virginia.gov/2017%20SLSOEI%20FINAL.pdf>.

3.5 Party Certification (SBE-511)

A candidate nominated by a political party is not required to submit a Declaration of Candidacy or Petition of Qualified Voters. A candidate for a special held at a time other than a general election must be nominated within five days of any writ of election calling a special election to be held less than 60 days after the issuance

3.6 Statement of Organization (CFDA-947.1)

While the Statement of Organization is not required to qualify for the ballot, it is required to be submitted by anyone who does qualify for the ballot in addition to other candidates seeking elected office who meet certain criteria.¹² The failure to file the Statement of Organization is not cause for disqualification but will subject a candidate to penalties imposed by the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act.¹³
